

Mediation Works!

Mediation helps to build relationships. People solve their own problems by looking to the future rather than finding fault with the past. And YOU (the people involved) make the decisions.

Some Comments from Mediation Participants :

"I am highly pleased with what I have seen and believe this to be a very productive and valuable resource for both management and employee."
- NTEU Official

"Mediation proved to be the key to resolving a long term problem. It saved time and money in the long run, while reopening effective communication between the parties."
- DOE Manager

"Mediation resolved my EEO complaint, but more importantly, it gave me closure. I was able to wipe the slate clean and really get on with my career."
- DOE Employee

This program was developed in conjunction with :

The Office of Civil Rights
HQ Employee and Labor/Management Relations Services
Employee Concerns Office
National Treasury Employees Union

Contact:

Phyllis Hanfling, Director
Office of Dispute Resolution
Office of General Counsel
202 586-6972
Fax: 202 586-7479
or visit us on the Web at www.gc.doe.gov

Got a Problem?

Mediation May Be The Answer

DOE Mediation Service

Office of Dispute Resolution